August 2020

Asbury Memorial Church
Rev. Billy Hester
Volume 33, Number 8
August 2020

Cecile Crockett & Colleen Robinette Added to The Tree of Life

On one of the main walls at the church is a plaque that recognizes people who remembered Asbury Memorial in their will or estate. We call it "The Tree of Life" because the gifts given by the deceased individuals listed on the plaque continue to offer life in many and new ways. The gifts continue to blossom into more and more blessings.

The names on the Tree of Life are Dix Elliott, Mary Hinely, and Joe and Eunice Hunnicutt. The gifts that these individuals left the church have made a huge impact on our ministry... even helping us add staff positions and programs.

We haven't added any names to the plaque in quite some time, but on Sunday, July 26th, we had the honor of adding the names of two very special people: Cecile Crockett and Colleen Robinette.

Cecile Crockett retired after 30 years of service from Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company (AT&T), where she started out as a switchboard operator. When she retired, she was part of the Marketing Department. She was also a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America. She dearly loved her family and loved worshipping at Asbury Memorial where many of her family members also attended. We greatly appreciate the financial gift that Cecile has left Asbury.

Colleen Robinette retired after serving as a career nurse for many years, but she still had a lot more to accomplish. She became known for her work at the Juliette Gordon Low House and for her work as a sculptor. Her piece, "Mother and Child" can be found at St. Joseph's/Candler Hospital and her piece, "Circle of Love" at the Anderson Cancer Institute. Along with a financial gift, we are excited that Colleen has left Asbury Memorial one of her special pieces of sculpture art that she titled, "Here I Am, Lord." It is of Cheri Hester leading the congregation in the "Here I Am, Lord" refrain which is sung to the end of Asbury's Sunday services.

The financial gifts and the artwork left by these remarkable women are greatly appreciated. Thank you, Cecile and Colleen. Your Spirits live with us!

This celebration of Cecile and Colleen's gifts remind us all of the opportunity to remember Asbury Memorial in our will or estate. We would love to add your name to The Tree of Life!

“Fitness Together”

Via Zoom

Join us for our first ever “Fitness Together” weekly workout class on Thursdays, 11 – 11:30 am. If you have used Zoom before, simply go to the church website and click on the “Fitness Together” icon and enter the class.

If you have never used Zoom before, click on this same icon on the website before class and it will walk you through downloading the Zoom app either through Google Play or Download from Zoom. It is a one-time process and then you are set.

Following is a description from Asburian, Linda Socks, who will be leading the class.

Description: New to exercise, or just starting back?... this is your 30 minute workout. Go at your own pace and exercise with us. The workouts will be based on cross training, mixing different training methods for a well-balanced fitness regimen. Cardio, strength training (light weights or bodyweight), stretching and more will help with your goals.

Weights are recommended (2#, 3#, or 5#). If you are experienced, pick the weight that works for you. If you are just starting out and do not have weights, filled water bottles will work. You will learn how other home items can be used in place of weights. Wear comfortable shoes preferably sneakers & workout clothes. Have a small towel, and most importantly... have water handy to stay hydrated.

If you have any questions email Candace Jenkins at cjenkins@asburymemorial.org.

Please join us for this new and exciting opportunity at Asbury to connect with others and help us get physically fit and do something positive for our minds and bodies.

Denominational Disaffiliation Update

Wow! It is finally here! The South Georgia Conference will have a Zoom Annual Conference on Saturday, August 15th. It is on this day that the Conference will vote to approve or disapprove Asbury Memorial's disaffiliation. Anyone can watch the vote, and we encourage you to do so. When we get closer to the 15th, we will send out an email with the information about how to connect to the Zoom Conference.

We anticipate that the disaffiliation will be approved as we have tried our best to follow all of the requirements; however, the church will not be "officially" disaffiliated until about two weeks later. After the vote on the 15th, there still will be some documents that will need to be exchanged, and we will need to make the payment to the Conference. We appreciate everyone who has made a special pledge and contribution to the Disaffiliation Fund.

So if our disaffiliation is approved on the 15th, feel free to let out a little "hurray!" But then when we get everything taken care of at the end of August, we should all be able to shout out a big "HURRAY!" Thank you for your patience and for your commitment to justice for all of our church members.

Godly Play LIVE on Sunday mornings July and August

For the past few months, Ruthie Deffley has been recording Godly Play stories for our children and church members and posting them on Asbury's YouTube channel. This has been a helpful way to continue offering Godly Play stories while we are not able to meet in person.

Starting in July, we will be offering Godly Play stories LIVE! at 10 am on Sunday mornings. We will be using ZOOM to share the stories virtually. An email will go out with the link and information on how to participate.

We encourage our families with young children to join us for this special time of worship however, this is open to everyone in our congregation and we hope all who are interested in participating can join us.

The stories are between 10-15 minutes long with a time of wondering afterward. Response time will be included so having some art materials on hand will allow you to create something after the story. Some ideas of materials you may want to have ready are colored paper, white paper, crayons, colored pencils, scissors, glue, googly eyes, pipe cleaners, glitter, paint and paint brushes and beads and yarn. This is a special time when our innate creativity is encouraged to come out and play!

*Parents with younger children (3-5 years old) may need to assist their children during response time.

For questions about Godly Play or how to participate in a Zoom call, please contact Ruthie Duran Deffley at rdurandeffley@asburymemorial.org

Steele of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, LeAndrea Mikell of World Trade Center Savannah, Clay Mobley of Optimum Water, Caroline Gregory of Sterling Seacrest Partners, Robert Douberly of Thunderbolt Marine, Chris Steiner of EmployAbility and Avi Heyman, student at Savannah Country Day School.

Amazing Grayson

Back in February, Brantley Romanowski (age 7) joined me on stage during a Sunday morning worship service and at Wednesday Night Supper to ask for donations for "JoyJars." These JoyJars are for kids actively fighting cancer under the age of 18. They are age and gender specific and filled with new toys and activities to help a child fighting cancer smile and feel loved.

This was very important to Brantley because his younger brother Grayson (age 4) had just traveled to Atlanta with his father, Jason, to spend 4 months in the hospital to receive chemo, radiation and upon successful completion of both, a bone marrow transplant.

Thanks to the generosity of Brantley's Asbury family, he raised $750.00, enough to send 30 JoyJars to children across the United States. THANK YOU, ASBURY!!! When I shared that big number with Brantley, he beamed a big, toothless grin as he had recently lost a couple of front teeth. He was glowing!

But that's not the best news...his little brother Grayson was able to come home one week earlier than anticipated from treatment in June as he responded so well! The young boys were reunited and have been happily playing together ever since. Grayson was non-stop action the entire time I was there for pictures. He is full of energy and life!

Continue to hold sweet Grayson in your prayers as he does have to return to Atlanta in September for some stents to be placed in his heart. They were not able to do this procedure while he was up there in the Spring as he was too weak. And pray for his amazing uncles, James Mullins and Charles Richardson as they help Jason care for both of these beautiful boys.

Charles is currently studying Early Childhood Education at Savannah Tech and has received a full scholarship due to his stellar academic performance. He has made National Honor Society and is planning on pursuing his education to the Ph.D level. James was recently promoted to Assistant Manager at EnMarket and oversees both the market and new car wash on Chatham Parkway. Jason was able to find employment at a car dealership after losing his job due to needing to be with Grayson in Atlanta for 4 consecutive months and is quickly learning the ropes.

Grayson stays home with Charles most of the time and with virtual learning for public schools, Brantley will be home too. Brantley is starting 1st grade this Fall but is already working in 2nd grade workbooks. And he is the #1 fan of Sonic the Hedgehog. You will not catch him without his blue Sonic t-shirt on except on laundry day!

This remarkably resilient family is grounded in their faith in God and are grateful for the love and support they have received from their Asbury family and friends. If you were not able to donate to Brantley's JoyJars, but still would like to make a donation, you can do so by going to this website: www.NEGU.org. If you would like to send Brantley, Grayson or the family a note via mail or email, I can share with you their contact information.

rdurandeffley@asburymemorial.org They would love to hear from you!
