INTRODUCING “CHURCH TALK!”

A NEW WAY TO CONNECT AT ASBURY MEMORIAL

Rev. August Alderman is launching a new and meaningful opportunity for connection at Asbury Memorial Church: “Church Talk!”

Once a month, August will invite a small group of four to five church members to gather in person for dessert, conversation, and community. Each month will feature a different mix of participants, creating space for fresh voices, shared stories and deeper relationships within our congregation.

The very first “Church Talk!” is scheduled for January 29, 2026, from 6:30–7:30 PM.

If an invitation arrives in your inbox soon, consider this your heads-up! We hope you’ll say yes.

These gatherings are meant to be relaxed, meaningful, and rooted in the life we share as a church family.

Possible conversation prompts include:

- “What are you excited about in our church lately?”
- “Have you discovered your spiritual gifts at Asbury?”
- How have you used those gifts?”
- “What is one thing you’d like me to pray about for our church?”
- “What was a meaningful moment for you in church this past month?”

Rev. August shares his gratitude for the trust you place in him as your associate pastor and looks forward to these new conversations –moments to listen, learn, and grow together.

Stay tuned... you might be part of the next Church Talk!

JUST UPDATE

ASBURY MEMORIAL WELL-REPRESENTED AT JUST CLERGY CAUCUS

Asbury Memorial was well-represented at the JUST Clergy Caucus on November 18, 2025, held at the Ralph Mark Gilbert Civil Rights Museum. Among the 35 clergy in attendance were Rev. August Alderman, Rev. Billy Hester, and Rev. Claire Marich, who joined colleagues from across Savannah to reflect on the powerful legacy of our local civil rights heroes and sheroes.

The gathering offered a meaningful opportunity to deepen our understanding of Savannah's justice history while strengthening relationships with other faith leaders committed to building a more just and compassionate community.

Looking ahead, all members of the JUST network will be invited to continue this important learning in the new year. A series of events planned for January, February, and March will provide further opportunities to engage with our shared justice story.

Stay tuned for details as they become available.

PLEDGE 2026

Stewardship Season: It's Not Too Late to Make Your 2026 Pledge

As we enter this season of gratitude and generosity, Asbury Memorial and Wesley Oak invite you to consider the impact your stewardship pledge can make for the year ahead. Our congregations are places of welcome, creativity, compassion, and justice—and it's through your support that our ministries continue to thrive.

From worship that inspires, to outreach that uplifts our neighbors, to programs that nurture children, families, and seekers of all kinds, the work we do together is a reflection of our shared commitment to God's inclusive love. And as we begin shaping the 2026 budget, your pledge plays a vital role in helping us plan faithfully and boldly for the future.

A pledge—of any amount—helps us:

- Sustain and grow our ministries
- Support our dedicated staff
- Strengthen missions that serve our wider community
- Invest in the spiritual life and well-being of both campuses

If you haven't yet submitted your pledge, it's not too late. Every gift, every intention, and every act of generosity helps build the foundation for another year of vibrant ministry at Asbury Memorial and Wesley Oak.

Together, we can ensure that our churches continue to shine as centers of hope, welcome, and transformative love. Thank you for being part of this journey—your faithfulness makes all the difference.

Holiday Foods Your Pets Can Safely Enjoy

The holiday season brings lots of festive meals, and curious pets hoping for a taste! While many traditional dishes aren't safe for dogs and cats, there are a few pet-friendly foods you can share in moderation.

Plain turkey (no skin, bones, or seasoning)

A small piece of cooked, unseasoned turkey is a protein-packed treat.

Cooked Vegetables

Carrots, green beans, peas, and pumpkin (plain, not pie filling) are gentle on pets' stomachs.

Plain mashed sweet potatoes

Rich in fiber and nutrients—just keep them free of butter, sugar, and spices.

Apple slices

A sweet, crunchy snack (remove seeds and core).

A Few Reminders:

Avoid giving pets chocolate, grapes/raisins, onions, garlic, sugary desserts, seasoned foods, and anything containing xylitol. When in doubt, stick to simple, unseasoned ingredients.

Keeping a few safe options on hand lets your furry family members celebrate with you (without any post-holiday vet visits!)

CELEBRATING 50
YEARS OF STEPHEN
MINISTRY: A LEGACY OF COMPASSION AND CARE

This year marks a significant milestone in the life of the Church: the 50th anniversary of Stephen Ministry, a ministry that has transformed congregations and countless lives through one-on-one Christian caregiving. Since its founding in 1975 by Dr. Kenneth Haugk, a pastor and clinical psychologist, Stephen Ministry has grown into one of the most impactful lay-driven pastoral care programs in the world.

What began with a simple, Spirit-led idea—equipping congregation members to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting—has now trained more than 600,000 Stephen Ministers in over 13,000 congregations across more than 30 denominations. Five decades later, the heart of the ministry remains the same: “Bear one another’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2).

A Ministry Built on Listening, Presence, and Hope

Stephen Ministers are not counselors or problem-solvers—they are compassionate listeners who walk alongside people facing life’s challenges: illness, grief, divorce, job loss, caregiving stress, life transitions, and more. Through weekly visits and ongoing support, Stephen Ministers offer a steady, prayerful presence rooted in the belief that Christ is the true healer.

Their ministry is confidential, relational, and deeply personal. For many care receivers, a Stephen Minister becomes a lifeline—someone who hears their story, honors their pain, and reminds them they are not alone.

50th ANNIVERSARY

Training Ordinary People for Extraordinary Care

One of the hallmarks of Stephen Ministry is its thorough and spiritually grounded training. Participants complete more than 50 hours of preparation in topics like active listening, maintaining boundaries, prayer, grief care, spiritual support, and understanding the process of healing. Ongoing supervision and continuing education allow Stephen Ministers to grow in wisdom, resilience, and effectiveness.

This model has empowered generations of laypeople to discover gifts they never knew they had and to serve in ways that are both meaningful and transformative.

Half a Century of Impact

As Stephen Ministry celebrates its 50th year, its influence can be seen in the stories shared by both care receivers and caregivers—stories of renewed hope, restored dignity, healing, and grace. Congregations that support Stephen Ministry often find that the entire community is strengthened: pastors receive additional support in caregiving, lay members discover their capacity for ministry, and those who are hurting feel genuinely cared for.

Looking Ahead

The work of Stephen Ministry has never been more needed. In a world marked by isolation, stress, and uncertainty, the ministry’s core values—compassion, confidentiality, presence, and faithfulness—serve as a reminder of the Church’s calling to be a place of comfort and hope.

As we commemorate this 50-year milestone, we celebrate all who have served as Stephen Ministers and all who have been blessed by this ministry’s care. And we look forward with gratitude and expectation, trusting that God will continue to use Stephen Ministry to bring healing and Christ-centered support to those in need for many years to come.

PACK SMART, PACK LIGHT

Pack Smart, Pack Light
Choose versatile clothing that can mix and match. Roll your clothes to save space and reduce wrinkles. Leave room in your suitcase for any gifts you may bring home.

KEEP ESSENTIALS EASY TO REACH

Place important items (ID, tickets, prescriptions, charger, and a small snack) in your carry-on or front pocket of your bag. This saves time and avoids digging through luggage..

SIMPLE HOLIDAY PACKING & TRAVEL TIPS

A little preparation can go a long way in reducing stress and helping you enjoy your holiday journey as much as the destination. Here are a few simple tips to keep your holiday travels smooth and stress-free:.

Make a Master List

Write down everything you need before you start packing—clothes, chargers, gifts, medications, snacks, and travel documents. Checking items off as you go prevents last-minute panic.

Stay Patient & Be Kind

Holiday travel can be hectic for everyone—travelers and workers alike. A little patience, a smile, and grace go a long way toward making the journey brighter.

PREPARE FOR WEATHER CHANGES

Holiday weather can be unpredictable. Pack a lightweight layer, umbrella, or compact jacket just in case. If traveling by car, keep a blanket and emergency kit on hand.

WRAP GIFTS AFTER YOU ARRIVE

If you're flying, avoid wrapping presents ahead of time, as security may need to inspect them. Instead, bring gift bags or wait to wrap them once you reach your destination.

Anticipation Celebration & Burning Bowl Ceremony

Thursday, January 1st, 2026

3:00pm

Asbury Memorial Church
1008 E. Henry Street

Asbury Memorial Church has had a tradition of coming together on or around New Year's Day to release things from the past year and to imagine the accomplishments of a new year.

We look forward to you joining us on Thursday, January 1, 2026 to continue this tradition!

 All are welcome! ***

We will begin with a Burning Bowl Ceremony where everyone is invited to symbolically and literally let go of old, unwanted beliefs, habits, and fears to start the new year fresh.

Then each participant will be led through a guided exercise called an Anticipation Celebration. The Anticipation Celebration is a mostly silent activity, where your facilitators will guide you as you reflect on your goals and write a love letter to yourself. This letter can touch on all areas of your life, enhancing your dreams about who you are and what you want to realize in the coming year.

These letters are then sealed, collected and mailed to you around Thanksgiving. There is great power in the intention process. Our thoughts create our reality. So it is always a wonderful surprise to read these letters we have written to our future selves.

Please join us. All are welcome!

What to have with you: paper, writing instruments, something to bear down on, a stamped envelope and a curious and open mind open to all the possibilities this next year holds. We look forward to you joining us and continuing the tradition!

IRIS DAYOUB

ARTIST JURIED INTO THE LUMINOSITY 2025 JURIED VIRTUAL INTERNATIONAL OPEN EXHIBITION

Time with Iris

AMC: First, congratulations on having one of your brilliant pieces selected for “Luminosity” 2025 Juried Virtual International Open Exhibition! Tell us a bit more about hearing the exciting news.

Iris: Receiving the letter letting me know that my painting, Poppies and Pears, had been juried into the exhibition was a surprise and the source of great joy that still lingers.

The letter:

Southeastern Pastel Society is pleased to announce that Juror of Entries, Mark Ivan Cole, has completed the selection of images for “Luminosity” 2025 Juried Virtual International Open Exhibition.

Congratulations on your acceptance! We are pleased to inform you that the following work has been accepted for inclusion in the exhibition: Poppies and Pears.

We received 566 paintings from 192 artists. A total of 229 paintings were selected from an impressive body of work and will be included in the show.

AMC: Please tell us a bit more about your selected piece – why poppies?

Iris: An art collector contacted me last spring to paint three large paintings of poppies. One of them is 56” tall!

Many well-known artists recommend painting a series, so in addition to the commissioned work, I just kept going and haven’t stopped yet.

The title of the exhibition, “Luminosity,” inspired me to enter the painting “Pears and Poppies” because I think the colors of the painting are so luminous. I love mixing purples with reds and oranges.

AMC: Have you been a life-long experienced painter?

Iris: I just started painting about 9 years ago. I thought my hobby during retirement would be photography. So I signed up for a photography class at Armstrong, then noticed that a drawing class was available also. I loved the class, and my professor was so encouraging that I kept going by taking a watercolor, and then an acrylic painting class. I like drawing with pencils and charcoal, so moving to pastels which are so tactile was a natural progression.

AMC: What do you hope people will experience when they view your artwork in the exhibition?

Iris: Most of us feel better when surrounded by beauty. Through the healing power of beauty, we are more creative in our problem-solving, more loving in our relationships, and more accepting of our differences. When I paint, my goal is to create something beautiful. When I first started painting, my only focus was on beauty. But as time has passed, I find myself attempting to create a mood that enhances the viewer's outlook on life, that inspires hope, that offers courage, and that stimulates energy and confidence.

AMC: How does your faith influence your art?

Iris: I was created in the image of the Great Creator; therefore I am a creator also. I hope that my art reveals in some small way the love of God for all her creation.

AMC: What encouragement would you offer to others in our church community who are exploring their own creative gifts?

Iris: We are all creators. For anyone exploring their own creative gifts, I would recommend finding a group where you can experiment and learn from each other.

Joining the Landings Art Association and the Savannah Art Association put me in touch with other artists who shared their expertise and offered critiques. I find it fun and productive to create with other creators!

NEW YEAR'S TIPS FOR A CHRIST-CENTERED YEAR

As we welcome a new year, we're reminded that God is always doing a "new thing" in our lives (Isaiah 43:19). The start of a new year is a beautiful opportunity to pause, reflect, and invite God to guide our steps. Here are a few simple, faith-filled ways to begin the year with purpose and peace.

1. Choose a "Theme Scripture" for the Year

Instead of resolutions, pick one verse that speaks to your heart—something that encourages, strengthens, or challenges you. Let it shape your mindset and decisions throughout the year.

2. Set Small, Spirit-Led Goals

Pray over your goals and ask God to align your plans with His will. Small, consistent steps—whether in prayer, service, or personal growth—can lead to meaningful transformation.

3. Refresh Your Home (and Heart)

Just as we tidy our homes, it's also a great time to declutter spiritually. Release old worries, forgive where needed, and make room for God's peace to dwell more fully in your life.

4. Prioritize Rest and Renewal

God calls us to Sabbath rest. Create simple habits that honor the body and spirit He gave you—quiet time with the Lord, healthy rhythms, and intentional moments of stillness.

5. Lean Into Joy and Community

God designed us for fellowship. Make time for the activities and people who bring joy and encouragement. Look for ways to serve and connect within your church family.

6. Practice Daily Gratitude to God

Recognize God's blessings—big and small. A quick prayer of thanks each morning or evening can help you see His hand at work in your everyday life.

7. Embrace Progress, Not Perfection

We don't enter the new year alone. God meets us with grace, guidance, and renewed strength. Trust Him in the process, celebrate growth, and remember Philippians 1:6—"He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion."

Tax Tips

FROM MICHAEL DAYOUB, CFP

If you itemize deductions, you should consider a tax law change effective for the 2026 tax year. Only your charitable contributions that exceed 0.5% of your adjusted gross income are eligible as a Schedule A deduction. If that's you, then you might consider accelerating some of your giving into 2025 to maximize your tax benefit. For other tax-smart donation strategies, check out the video link on our website for the replay of our tax-smart giving and estate planning seminar we held at Asbury earlier this year.

SUPPORT FOR A BALANCED LIFE

Wesley Oak Church is proud to host SMART Recovery meetings every Monday evening from 7:00-8:30 p.m. SMART Recovery is a program designed to help individuals overcome harmful habits and addictions through practical tools based on cognitive and motivational psychology and addiction research.

Unlike traditional 12-step programs, SMART takes a science-based approach that emphasizes self-reliance, self-resilience, and self-empowerment. Participants are encouraged to become the experts on their own recovery journeys, choosing strategies and supports that fit their needs. Topics may include relationships, substance use, gambling, eating, spending, and other behaviors that can impact well-being.

There is no requirement to commit to a lifetime of meetings. Instead, participants decide when and how long they wish to be involved, making SMART a flexible and welcoming community. The program also recognizes that individuals may benefit from participating in more than one support group, and it values collaboration rather than exclusivity.

ENJOY LIVE THEATRE WITH FELLOW ASBURIANS!

Several Asbury folks recently attended the Savannah Rep production of Tiny Little Things—and had a wonderful time together (see photo). We're excited to start this activity back up and would love for more friends to join us!

If you enjoy live theatre and would like to be part of future outings—open to anyone, not just Asbury members—please connect with Heidi Hoffmann or Tom Lewis. They'll add you to the interest list so you'll receive announcements about upcoming performances.

Theatre outings will resume in January 2026, and we'd be delighted to have you join the fun!
