PRIDE

What a beautiful celebration of love, community, and belonging at Savannah PRIDE 2026!

To everyone who helped make bracelets, volunteered at our booth, shared a smile, or stopped by to say hello, THANK YOU!

Together, Asbury Memorial Church and Wesley Oak had the joy of sharing a message we believe with all our hearts: You are loved. You are celebrated. You belong.
Every conversation, every act of kindness, and every new connection helped us open our doors a little wider and welcome more of God's children home.

We are so grateful for everyone who helped us share God's love throughout Savannah. And to our new friends, we hope to see you again soon.

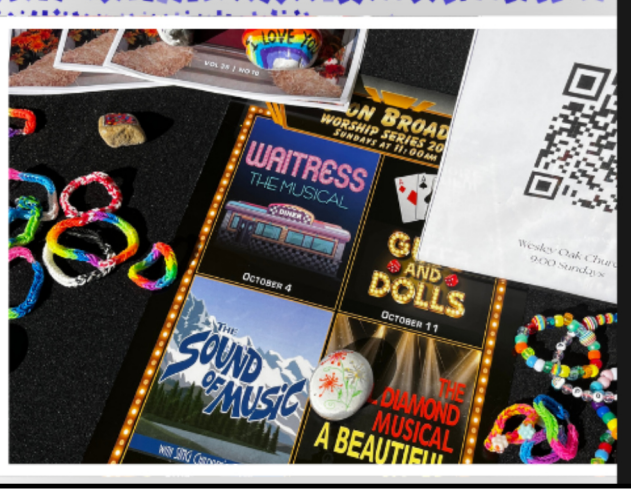

There's always a place for you here.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Preparing Our Hearts for Stewardship Month

BECAUSE OF You

Because of You...

It's interesting to me how much I've learned about stewardship since entering the role of Associate Minister for Asbury Memorial Church. Well over a year ago, I began giving the offering invitations during our Sunday worship services. I had never considered how many hundreds of ways there are to frame the offering invitation. One such framing that is particularly special is when we make our offering to God following Holy Communion. There is a cool connection between the offering and Holy Communion, in both of which God turns simple things into extraordinary things!

We receive simple elements of bread and juice. Alone, bread and juice are both yummy, but a miracle happens when those ordinary items are turned into the love of Jesus for us. We eat and drink the story of Jesus together, remembering his vision of love – in a meal of solidarity, of shared grief and shared hope, a centering of togetherness. It's amazing. How awe-inspiring is it when God takes the simple thing we call money and turns it into ministry!

In Giving to God, Mark Allan Powell writes that when we give God something that holds value to us, like money, we engage in pure devotion to God. While we are called to give to God something of value, God also calls us to stewardship for our personal needs, family obligations, and financial health. Being a blessing to others also means caring for ourselves too. I appreciate that Powell also states that giving is liberating! Money can often have an emotional grip on us. When we share what we have in offering, we actively release that emotional grip, which brings spiritual freedom and trust in God.

Giving to God is a great book to check out this season!

When we gather what we have to share and make it an offering to God, God begins to transform it – and God trusts us to help with the transforming.

Every day the church is changing people's lives within our faith family and out in our neighborhood and community. So much begins within the walls of our building that houses our sanctuary, learning spaces, Holliday Hall, and offices. During the week, our building hosts SING, J.U.S.T. meetings, youth group, Sisters in Faith, movie nights, and multiple community organizations.

All of this is changing people's lives in more ways than we can all know. I hope you'll take some time to tell me a story about how Asbury Memorial Church has changed your life! You are in my prayers in this time of discernment we know as Stewardship season.

Thank you for sharing, Rev August

3rd Space Oct '26

A little creativity can go a long way in sharing love.

At our October 3rd Space gathering, we made bracelets to share with visitors to the Asbury Memorial Church and Wesley Oak booth at Savannah PRIDE. Each bracelet was a small way to remind someone that they are loved and welcome.

Thank you to everyone who spent time making bracelets and helping us share God's love with our community. We're grateful for the care you put into each one and for all the ways you help welcome more children of God home. ❤️

SISTERS IN FAITH

A Gathering of Thanks & Giving

An afternoon of fellowship, creativity, and care for our neighbors.

Sisters in Faith will gather for an afternoon of fellowship and two projects that put gratitude and generosity into action.

1 THANKS

We will create personalized Christmas cards for those who worship with us on Christmas Eve. If you have saved Christmas cards, bring a few to donate to this creative project. Together, we will give them a new purpose and prepare a thoughtful welcome for our Christmas Eve worshippers.

2 GIVING

We will collect supplies for the Showers of Grace Blessing Bags that our youth will assemble for people experiencing homelessness in Savannah. Donations may be left on the stage in the fellowship hall.

What to Bring

Travel size hand sanitizer, body wash, tissues, shampoo, lotion, deodorant, bug spray, dishwashing soap, and mouthwash. Disposable razors, body wipes, first aid supplies, feminine hygiene products, combs, toilet paper, and hand wipes.

Lunch, Simply Shared

Please bring a sandwich or salad for yourself. Chips and beverages will be provided. Volunteers are welcome to help with setup or cleanup, or bring a sweet treat to share.

Questions?

ASBURIANS IN ACTION

SHARING THE JOY OF READING

Our own Emily Garrard recently shared her love of reading as a Reading United Buddy at Otis J. Brock III Elementary School. During the school's Lit on the Lawn event, Emily read a Pete the Cat book to a second grade class.

"It was a sweet experience and a beautiful day!" Emily shared.

Thank you, Emily, for giving your time to encourage young readers and sharing a little Asbury love in our community!

CONGRATULATIONS

Rev. Claire Marich

Congratulations to our own Rev. Claire Marich on being named Vice President of the board of J.U.S.T. Savannah! We are proud of Claire and grateful for her leadership and commitment to justice in our community. Your Asbury family celebrates this honor with you!

CONGREGATIONS IN SERVICE — NOVEMBER 14–15

Many Faiths, One Community

Join neighbors from across Savannah for Congregations in Service on Saturday, November 14, and Sunday, November 15. This shared weekend offers an opportunity to serve our community while building friendships across faith traditions.

Asbury will host Saturday's opening gathering, with coffee at 7:30 a.m., followed by a brief service. Participants can sign up for projects that match their interests and abilities. Indoor projects offer meaningful ways to participate for those unable to work outside.

Working alongside our Jewish, Muslim, Bahá'í, and Christian neighbors gives us an opportunity to learn from one another while putting our shared care for the community into action.

Asbury Memorial Church & WOW moments.

If you ask me to name five reasons why I love my church, I would really have to organize my thoughts because there is absolutely more than five. But I will keep my list short. These are my five: God on Broadway, 3rd Space, caroling at Christmas, coffee hours, and our awesome choir. There are five other reasons why I love my church: love, support, care, hugs, and humor, the most important being love.

How do I begin to speak of Asbury Memorial Church? Well, when I first began visiting there, it was a wow moment, as Billy would say. It was truly a WOW moment, and the moments just kept coming and getting better. Being a part of this church is so special, and it's all because of one person who my husband, Raymond, my son Bryan, and I met a few years earlier. Meeting Jason Zimmer at the American Legion post 184 was the beginning of a wonderful and lifelong friendship.

The post would have karaoke nights, and my family and I would go see Jason singing his heart out. Bryan also liked karaoke. Then in 2016, I lost Raymond to kidney cancer. It was very hard on Bryan, and especially hard on me, now a single mother trying to raise a special needs child. After a time of slowly healing, Bryan and I would return to post 184 just to be around friends. We needed that. Jason would be there, and he invited us to church. That sounded nice. He was a godsend.

The Reverend Billy Hester was the pastor at Asbury. He was kind, gentle, and funny. He made Bryan and me feel so secure and right at home, as did the congregation. Bryan and I had found our church. We joined on February 3rd, 2019.

Sometimes at church, Bryan would get really antsy and anxious. I was really concerned about this. I loved this church and didn't want to discontinue coming, with thoughts of my son causing disturbances. One Sunday, Bryan began getting a little agitated, and I was just about to get him when someone in the congregation saw Bryan and discreetly took him outside. I was very thankful for his actions. This man was Jim Nettles. He was also a godsend that day. He's been Bryan's advocate ever since. Others are also on "Team Bryan," as it's called: Preston Hodges, Bill Oakley, Steve Johnson, as well as Billy. I'm so very blessed to have these wonderful guys to help and support me and my son. After seven years of uncertainty for Bryan, I'm so grateful to have my church family's love and support.

There is one thing that I would like to mention that is very important to my testimonial. I'm not ashamed to admit that things got a little rocky a few years ago, and I was struggling financially. I turned to Billy and the church for help. Billy told me about a place called Family Promise, an organization that helps families with financial problems. Family Promise, along with the church, helped me a great deal, and thankfully, I was able to get back on my feet. Today Bryan is thriving at his host home on Wilmington Island. I have gotten involved with events and coffee hours, as well as ushering. The wow moments are always there. God bless Asbury Memorial Church.

ANGELLS YOUTH GROUP UPDATE

Sharing Blessings, Together

Angells Youth Group and Sisters in Faith Join Hands to Help Our Neighbors

This November, Asbury's Angells Youth Group and Sisters in Faith are teaming up to put love into action. With help from our congregation, the groups will collect supplies to create blessing bags for people who are experiencing homelessness in our local communities.

Sisters in Faith and the youth will gather donations, and the youth will assemble the items into bags to share. Each contribution will offer practical support and express care for our neighbors.

This partnership brings generations together around a shared purpose. It gives our young people an opportunity to serve alongside others in their church family and invites all of us to participate.

Help Us Fill the Bags

Requested supplies include:

- Toothbrushes, toothpaste, and dental floss
- Soap, body wash, shampoo, and deodorant
- Hand sanitizer and cleansing wipes
- Disposable razors and shaving cream
- Combs and lip balm
- Tissues
- Menstrual pads, tampons, and panty liners
- Socks, warm hats, and gloves
- Hand warmers and emergency blankets
- Rain ponchos and flashlights

Small, individually packaged toiletries are especially convenient for assembling the bags. Whether you contribute one item or several, your generosity will help us care for people in a practical and personal way.

Please leave donated items on the stage in Holliday Hall.

As we enter a season of thanksgiving, this project offers a meaningful opportunity to share what we have. Thank you for supporting our youth, Sisters in Faith, and the neighbors these blessing bags will reach.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WALK ALONE: THE CARE OF STEPHEN MINISTRY

Life does not always unfold the way we expect. There are seasons of joy and celebration, but also times of grief, stress, illness, transition, or uncertainty. In those moments, it can be easy to feel like we have to carry everything on our own. But did you know you do not have to?

Stephen Ministry is a quiet but powerful presence within our church, offering one to one, confidential care to those who are going through a difficult time. It is built on a simple and meaningful idea. Sometimes what we need most is someone to truly listen and walk beside us.

A Stephen Minister is a trained member of our congregation who meets regularly with someone needing support. They are not there to fix problems or offer quick answers. Instead, they provide compassionate listening, encouragement, and a steady, caring presence. Whether you are navigating loss, dealing with health challenges, facing a life transition, or simply feeling overwhelmed, a Stephen Minister is there to remind you that you are not alone.

This ministry reflects the heart of who we are as a church. People caring for one another, showing up with love, and offering grace in real and tangible ways. It is about creating space for honesty, healing, and connection, without judgment or expectation.

If you or someone you know could benefit from having someone to talk to, someone who will listen and walk alongside you, Stephen Ministry is here for you. Reaching out may feel like a small step, but it can open the door to meaningful support and companionship.

Because no one should have to carry life's burdens alone, and here, you do not have to

SMART Recovery

SUPPORT FOR A BALANCED LIFE

- MONDAYS
- 7:00P -8:30P
- EPISCOPACY CENTER AT 3101 WATERS AVE, SAVANNAH, GA
- ALL ARE WELCOME!

Wesley Oak Church is proud to host SMART Recovery meetings every Monday evening from 7:00–8:30 p.m. SMART Recovery is a program designed to help individuals overcome harmful habits and addictions through practical tools based on cognitive and motivational psychology and addiction research.

Unlike traditional 12-step programs, SMART takes a science-based approach that emphasizes self-reliance, self-resilience, and self-empowerment. Participants are encouraged to become the experts on their own recovery journeys, choosing strategies and supports that fit their needs. Topics may include relationships, substance use, gambling, eating, spending, and other behaviors that can impact well-being.

There is no requirement to commit to a lifetime of meetings. Instead, participants decide when and how long they wish to be involved, making SMART a flexible and welcoming community. The program also recognizes that individuals may benefit from participating in more than one support group, and it values collaboration rather than exclusivity.

ENJOYING THE THEATRE SCENE IN SAVANNAH

Six friends recently enjoyed a wonderful evening together at the Savannah Theatre, taking in its production of Mamma Mia! It's always more fun to share a little theatre, friendship, and laughter.

Would you like to join fellow Asbury Memorial patrons and friends for an upcoming show? We'd love to have you! If you attend a performance on your own or with friends, snap a selfie or group photo and send it to Tom Lewis. We'll be happy to share it in the Asbury Monthly newsletter. Let's show Savannah just how much Asbury enjoys and supports the vibrant theatre scene in our wonderful city!

There are several exciting productions coming up, and we'd love for you to be part of the fun.

CONTACT TOM LEWIS FOR MORE INFO:

- Popcorn Falls at Savannah Rep: We're already making plans to attend the Sunday, November 22 performance. Contact the Savannah Rep box office for reservations.
- She Loves Me at New Oak Theatre: Check out this musical at one of Savannah's newest theatre companies! Performances run November 20–December 13.

For more information about upcoming shows or to join us for a theatre outing, please reach out to Tom Lewis or Heidi Hoffmann.

You can also explore the many theatre offerings around town at OnStage Savannah: www.onstagesavannah.com

Come enjoy a show, bring a friend, and let's keep the curtain rising on Asbury's love of the arts!

CELEBRATING
HELEN DOWNING

An Asbury Leader Honored for Her Service to Savannah

Our Asbury family has a wonderful reason to celebrate! Helen Downing was among three community leaders recognized at Elevate Savannah's Fourth Annual Leadership Awards Dinner on October 15 at Kehoe Iron Works at Trustees Garden. The awards honor individuals whose leadership and service have made a meaningful difference in Savannah and the surrounding community.

Helen, owner of Downing Real Estate, has long supported the preservation of Savannah's historic, artistic, and cultural heritage. Her contributions extend to numerous community and cultural organizations, alongside her work as a collector, researcher, and lecturer on Early Southern Silver and decorative arts. She was honored alongside Dr. Shirley James, publisher and retired editor of The Savannah Tribune, and Dr. Jermaine Whirl, president of Savannah State University. The evening also supported Elevate Savannah's work building lasting relationships with young people and helping them thrive.

For us at Asbury, this recognition offers an opportunity to celebrate someone we are grateful to call both a church leader and a member of our church family. Helen's commitment to the wider community reminds us how sharing our interests, gifts, and time can enrich the lives of others. Congratulations, Helen! We are proud of you and grateful for all you share with Asbury and Savannah.
