Thank You

Dear Church Family,
Cate and I want to thank all of you for your prayers for my father. When I flew home, I was certain that it would be the last time I would see him. When I arrived, the doctors were not at all optimistic, and yet he has made what even the doctors call a "miraculous recovery." His heart had stopped and he was resuscitated. Soon after, he was sitting in a chair in his room at work on his laptop. I am deeply grateful for the prayers, the love, the calls, and just for all of you. Asbury Memorial is a community of remarkable people and I am so honored to be a part of this church family.

Missions and Social Concerns

More information and sign up for all of the following will be at The Connection Corner.

There are 2 main working Missions subgroups: "Handy Hands" and "Helping Hands".

Handy Hands Schedule

Handy Hands, think 'handy men and women', meets to do a service project on the first Saturday of every month.

October 5: Painting and carpeting the family room of The Barnes House (more information below)

November 2: Building a home at the Habitat Faith Build work day, and door installation, etc. at the Family Justice Center (more information below)

Helping Hands Opportunities

Helping Hands does general service projects as needs are determined, and is open to all who want to help "multiply the transformational love and acceptance we find at Asbury" both within our church and in our community.

October's Mission Partner of the Month: The Barnes House

Located just a few blocks from Asbury, The Barnes House, a program of Union Mission, provides permanent supportive housing for up to 16 single formerly homeless women who have physical and/or mental disabilities. Through this program, ladies receive supportive services such as case management and community resource referrals.

How can you help Asbury partner with The Barnes House?

1) Donate gently used or new items to The Barnes House

You can help partner by bringing these items to the Connection Corner. They will immediately be put to good use.

Consider donating gently used items if you have unused extras: bath and kitchen towels, wash cloths, socks, twin sheets. We're also looking for a gently used couch, two chairs, side tables, lamps, and artwork to make the family room as comfortable as possible.

Consider donating new items if it's in your budget: laundry detergent, full-size bottles of body wash, women's underwear (sizes large or extra large)

Missions and Social Concerns (cont'd)

How can you help Asbury partner with The Barnes House? (cont'd)

2) Volunteer at The Barnes House

You can also help partner by giving one hour or less of your time! There will be information posted in the Connection Corner about one-hour or less volunteer opportunities. Come see what's available and sign up with friends or a couple of Asburians you want to get to know better. Why just go to lunch or coffee when you could have a unique bonding experience that 'multiplies the Asbury love'!!

November's Mission Partner of the Month:

The Family Justice Center

Also located just a few blocks from Asbury on Waters and 36th, The Family Justice Center will soon be a comprehensive support location for victims of domestic violence all under one roof. Partners offering services at this one location will be the Rape Crisis Center of the Coastal Empire, the Savannah Area Family Emergency (SAFE) shelter Center for Domestic Violence Services, the Coastal Area Children's Advocacy Center, the Mediation Center of the Coastal Empire, the Savannah Police department's Family Violence Unit, etc.

How can you help Asbury partner with The Family Justice Center?

- 1) Helping Hands will be leading a group for the next multifaith 'Congregations in Service' event, Saturday, November 9, to do final cleaning and set up before The Family Justice Center's soft opening.
- 2) There will be another 'Congregations in Service' option also on Saturday, November 9 to 'tie' blankets for use at the Center.
- 3) If you'd rather knit at home, you can also knit small 'take with you' blankets and soft toys for clients to use at the Family Justice Center and take home after receiving services.
- 4) There will be other ways to help get The Family Justice Center off the ground. If you feel called to help, please see Susan Bolinger in The Connection Corner for more opportunities.

Calling Any Clients of Thrivent Financial Services!

Did you know that Thrivent will donate up to $250 annually on behalf of each of their clients to nonprofit organizations? If you are a Thrivent client and do not take advantage of this program, visit the Connection Corner for more information .

Green Team News!

Many thanks to all who participated in and attended the screening of Paris to Pittsburgh. It was a joint effort with many people playing a part for us to host this important documentary. Special thanks to the Church and Society team, Paula Avena, David Alley, and all on the church staff who helped us.

The next Green Team meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 17 at 6:30 pm. Nick Deffley will be our presenter. Nick is the Sustainability Director for the City of Savannah. If you have items that you'd especially like Nick to address, please contact him at nicholasdeffley@gmail.com.

In November, the Green Team will be in charge of the café at the Pecan Honey Harvest on Saturday, November 23. Lots of fun! More on that later.

Disaster Relief for the Bahamas

We thank you for the wonderful contributions that were given during September's communion Sunday to aid the Bahamas. Almost $2000.00 was given. This was amazing, especially since we did not announce this giving opportunity in advance. If you missed this opportunity but still would like to contribute, you can bring your offering to church on Sunday or you can mail it to the church office. Please note "Bahamas Relief" on your check.

Handbell Choir

Practice is on Sunday mornings at 9 am on the second floor of the Education building.

One on One Conversations are Coming!

This is an exciting time in the life of our church! We are unified in an unprecedented way and ready to grow in our faith and mission together. To this end, a church-wide initiative is about to be launched which will involve every person in the congregation. Our plan is to have congregants talk one-on-one together in order to know one another better and to strengthen our relationships. Through one on one conversation, we can talk about the things that are most important to one another, and share our hopes and dreams together. We can also identify the fears that creep into our everyday lives and the things we would like to change in the world.

A dedicated team of folks has gathered and trained to lead these important conversations and you can look forward to receiving a call in the next several weeks from someone in this church community who wants to spend about 45 minutes with you to learn more about your thoughts and experiences. There is no catch. They will not be looking to sell you anything or convince you to join any group, just to talk. I hope that you receive this gift of listening with an open heart and mind. And know that your participation in this church-wide conversation is SO IMPORTANT. It will take us to a new place of deeper understanding of our strengths, our gifts and our care for one another, helping us to understand what it means to be a truly inclusive church.

On our Minds

Environmental concerns have been weighing heavily on our minds as well as the continually increasing number of deaths by gun violence. We support the first steps taken by the Savannah City Council to ask the State to take action on sensible firearm legislation. Kudos to the Asburians who have worked on this initiative tirelessly.

What's New

We have launched a Facebook page. You can find us by searching for Asbury Memorial Church & Society. We can't electronically invite you each personally, but if you do a search and click join we'll include you right away. It is a closed group for Asburians and friends of Asbury so we can keep this a safe place to exchange information and ideas. We will post the latest information on social justice activities in our area, in Georgia and some national activity. As a member you can post information about any organization you belong to that supports any of the six areas above. We would love to learn about causes dear to your heart.

If you have information or subject matter you'd like to have included on the page, please contact Paula Avena at paulacoach@gmail.com.

Legislative Contact Information

If you have never contacted your legislator before it can be intimidating to make a cold call. If you call during office hours staff will answer and take your message. If you call after hours you can leave a voice message.

Here is a sample script to get you started.

“Hello Representative Carter. I am a constituent and live in Savannah. I am calling today to urge you to vote for and support legislation that protects our coast line. I feel strongly that we must do everything possible to prevent any activities that will threaten our wildlife or endanger the coastal habitat. Thank you for your attention to this matter.”

Whatever message you are giving be sure to say you are a constituent, be clear about what you are for or against, and politeness counts. Why is this important? The staff actually tabulates the phone calls. Please add these numbers to your phone contact list so that calling your legislators will be easy. (See next page)

We are keeping these animating questions of our time in mind as we read:

- 1) What do I believe?
- 2) How did I come to believe it?
- 3) How might conversation, examination, light, prayer, and pondering change my belief?
- 4) What does God ask of me regarding this belief?

Suicide Prevention and Awareness

September was Suicide Prevention and Awareness Month. With the powerful presentations from the pulpit, it was decided to include this article again. While suicide prevention is important to address year-round, Suicide Prevention and Awareness Month provides a dedicated time to come together with collective passion and strength around a difficult topic. The truth is, we can all benefit from honest conversations about mental health conditions and suicide, because just one conversation can change a life.

Suicidal thoughts, much like mental health conditions, can affect anyone regardless of age, gender or background. In fact, suicide is often the result of an untreated mental health condition. Suicidal thoughts, although common, should not be considered normal and often indicate more serious issues.

It can be frightening if someone you love talks about suicidal thoughts. It can be even more frightening if you find yourself thinking about dying or giving up on life. Not taking these kinds of thoughts seriously can have devastating outcomes, as suicide is a permanent solution to (often) temporary problems.

These resources are available if you are currently struggling with suicidal thoughts:

* If it's an emergency in which you or someone you know is actively suicidal, you should immediately call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255 or call 911 or go to your local hospital emergency room

*You can text "HOME" to 741741 to get in touch with a crisis counselor from your phone

*You can go online to <https://suicidepreventionlifeline.org/chat/> and chat online with someone 24/7

*The Trevor Project offers crisis intervention and suicide prevention to LGBTQ youth through its hotline, chat feature, text feature and online support center at 866-488-7386. Text "START" to 678678 and at <https://www.thetrevorproject.org>

*NAMI, National Alliance on Mental Illness, provides lots of educational information about mental health in general, including suicide prevention and awareness along with specific support groups. Learn more at www.nami.org Savannah has a local chapter

*If you would like to see a mental health clinician but do not have health insurance, HUGS offers mental health counseling at a low cost rate, making mental health services available to everyone. Learn more at www.headsupsavannah.org

You are also part of a community of family and friends at Asbury Memorial and if you are having thoughts of suicide, please let someone know at church. Or come talk to Ruthie Duran Deffley, Director of Family Ministries or Rev. Claire Marich, Associate Pastor. They can help you find the support you need. YOU ARE NOT ALONE. There is hope.

ASBURY MEMORIAL'S

6th Annual Celebration

Saturday, November 23rd
10am-3pm
Historic Madison Square
(Bull at Macon)

THIS IS ASBURY MEMORIAL'S BIGGEST FUNDRAISING EVENT. VOLUNTEER TO HELP MAKE IT A SUCCESS!

If you have volunteered for the Pecan & Honey Harvest before—or if you have just joined the congregation—please consider volunteering this year for one or more of the activities below. The volunteers have as much (or more) fun than the visitors!

Sorting and Packaging Shelled Pecans (November 3–15)

We obtain the finest quality Georgia pecans directly from the orchard. Although they have gone through the shelling process, we still must insure there are no shells remaining in the nuts. Pecan pickers sort through our 500 plus pounds of nuts, separating the whole halves from broken pieces and removing any shell pieces. Then they package them into one pound and half-pound bags. This work can be done independently or in small groups in our second floor sorting room.

Home-Baking of Pecan and/or Honey-Related Goods for Sale at the Harvest (November 15–22)

Home Bakers prepare their favorite cookie and snack recipes and package them in small bags for sale in the Country Café (we suggest two dozen bags per baker). In keeping with the theme, each recipe needs to contain pecans and/or honey. We also welcome whole cakes and breads. Beginning November 3rd, you can pick up shelled pecans for your cooking.

Baking Pecan Cheese Bites (November 15) and Packaging Them for Sale (November 18–19)

We need four or five folks to help bake cheese bites in the church kitchen ovens. We will be baking over the entire day, but we welcome those who can only help for a shorter period. We will package the cheese bites for sale early the next week.

Packaging Home-Baked Products for Sale (November 22)

Beginning at 9 am, we will need volunteers to receive, package, and label our food products for sale.

Logistics Team (November 22 and November 24)

This group loads/unloads the sales product and the necessary equipment (tables, chairs, stage, etc.) to/from the truck. We need at least six to eight people with good backs at 4 pm on Friday, November 22, to load the truck. Then on Sunday, November 24, after the worship service, to unload the truck.

Event Set Up/Tear Down (8 am and 3 pm November 23)

We need at least ten volunteers to unload and reload the truck at Madison Square. They also will assist in setting up/breaking down the tables and chairs.

Working in the Country Store and Country Café on the Day of the Event (November 23)

Volunteers for this activity will be our sales force. They should be prepared to prepare product samples and to interact with the customers to market all our products and to make sales. Additionally you will help the store coordinator set up and take down the tables. There will be several shifts, which makes it easier on any one volunteer and enables a greater number of people to volunteer.

If you would like to learn more about any of these tasks, please see the notice on the bulletin board by the Social Hall or contact Bill Jahn at vijahn@gmail.com. Also, there will be sign-up cards, where you can indicate how you would like to serve and select a shift, available at the Connection Corner.
