Asbury Memorial
United Methodist Church
Rev. Billy Hester

Volume 23, Number 8
September 2017

In My Bones!

The old saying, "I feel it in my bones!" is one that I seldom use. Although my "intuition" scores fairly high on the Myers-Briggs, I don't like to make predictions. But something is different this year. I will go out on a limb and say that this is going to be a REMARKABLE year for Asbury! I really do "feel it in my bones!"

Of course, I'm not going too far out on a limb with my prediction. There are some very good reasons why we're going to have a great year. For one, we have a congregation that is committed to Christ's ministry. You have worked hard and have planted seeds. These seeds will soon be blooming!

One of the seeds you planted was hiring Ruthie Deffley to lead our Children and Family Ministries. Another seed was investing in renovating our offices and nurseries. Then there was all of the work you did last year with hospitality and connecting. The seeds are being planted. It's going to be a great year! I look forward to the journey with you!

- Billy

10 O'CLOCK HOUR ADULT STUDY

2017 FALL SCHEDULE (SEPTEMBER 10 – DECEMBER 31)

September 10

Welcome back / get re-acquainted session

September 17 – October 1

Animate: Bible

In this lively video-based study, we will start the season exploring different aspects of the Bible. How did the canon form? How should we read different kinds of scripture? How do the Old and New Testaments fit together?

October 8 – November 5

God on Broadway Revisited

Each week we will discuss the previous week's God on Broadway worship service, reflecting on the meaning and message that was delivered so creatively.

November 12 – December 17

Justice for the Poor – Jim Wallis and Sojourners

Justice for the Poor recaptures the biblical vision that links poverty with justice. Jesus' life and teaching shows a deep compassion toward the poor and marginalized. His messages often highlight the injustices shown to the poor and the prejudices the well-off have against them. How can we learn from the poor? What is our responsibility to care for the poor and to advocate for justice on their behalf?

December 24

Christmas Eve – no 10 O'Clock Hour

December 31

Reflections on 2017 and hopes for 2018

Sunday Morning Adult Study is open to everyone. If you can't make it every week, you are welcome to come whenever you can — each week is structured to stand on its own. Join us beforehand for coffee, tea, and fellowship.

Study Groups & Fellowship Groups

Asbury Memorial offers a wide variety of study and fellowship groups.

The Monday Seekers of Wisdom Group

Becoming Wise
An Inquiry into the Mystery and
Art of Living
Krista Tippett

Mondays at 1:00 pm for lunch, 1:30 for study

Starting September 11th

Convener – Pam Parker Kress

Facilitator for this study – Susan Bolinger

'Becoming Wise: An Inquiry into the Mystery and Art of Living –

Krista Tippett

(book, study guide and podcast interviews)

In Becoming Wise, Krista Tippett has created a master class in living for a fractured world. Fracture, she says, is not the whole story of our time. The enduring question of what it means to be human has become inextricable from the challenge of who we are to one another. She insists on the possibility of personal depth and common life for this century, nurtured by science and “spiritual technologies,” with civility and love as muscular public practice. And, accompanied by a cross-disciplinary dream team of a teaching faculty, she shows us how.

Reviews

“If you measure the worth of a book by the volume of scribbles you pen in the margins, the stars emphatically drawn, and the sentences underlined, Krista Tippett’s Becoming Wise: An Inquiry into the Mystery and Art of Living— a compendium of wisdom, at once intimate and expansive—stands a serious shot of emerging both splattered and cherished. Tippett, the Peabody Award-winning radio host and National Humanities Medalist, is a master of what she terms ‘generous listening,’ an act ‘powered by curiosity,’ and a ‘willingness to be surprised, to let go of assumptions and take in ambiguity.’” —Chicago Tribune

“ ‘Becoming Wise’ challenges all forms of dogma, in science, politics and philosophy as well as religion, and it affirms the holiness of the body and the glory of the inquiring mind. While our dominant media suggest that humans are incorrigibly selfish and greedy and cruel, Tippett and her conversation partners demonstrate that the longing to lead a good life, a moral life, remains powerful and pervasive in our day....” —Washington Post

On Being Studios is the producer of the public radio show/website/podcast On Being with Krista Tippett as well as the website/podcast Becoming Wise.

The Connection Corner at Coffee Hour

—it's about making real connections

Sunday, September 10-24

Did you know there are at least 2 people at Asbury who lived in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia? Beginning Sunday, September 10, come to The Connection Corner at Coffee Hour and mark maps of the U.S. and the world with locations where you've lived. A lot of new and interesting conversations—and connections—will be started when we share the intersections we might never otherwise discover.

Sunday, September 17

Join us in The Connection Corner at Coffee Hour as we celebrate the hope-giving mystery of Nature and Re-Creation. Bill Anderson and Howard Hackney will display their stunning and awe-inspiring photos of birds and the eclipse. Take time to come by and talk to these amazing photographers and see their work.

This is Creation

Today is the beginning, again.

Outside my window the rising sun

Illuminates a seagull

The warm glow cradles her as she

Gently glides above the house tops

All the birds are singing

They do not remember yesterday

Or fear tomorrow

This is Creation

Today is the beginning, again.

—Unknown

“Every single creature is full of God and is a book about God. Every creature is a word of God. If I spend enough time with the tiniest creature, even a caterpillar, I would never have to prepare a sermon. So full of God is every creature.”

—Meister Eckart

If you want to connect with other people or events at Asbury, come to The Connection Corner at Coffee Hour, which is in the back corner of the social hall.
