PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Rev. Grady Mills

God of justice and mercy, we confess that we have silenced our prophets. We have covered our ears to those who speak out for justice because it makes us uncomfortable. We ignore calls to end oppression and violence because it is inconvenient for us. Forgive us, Lord, for not learning from the mistakes of our ancestors, who ignored and killed their prophets. Forgive us when we follow their steps instead of following your ways. In the name of Christ, who forgives us, we pray. Amen.

A Covenant Prayer of Recommitment to Justice

One: At this time of year when we recognize the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., let us go to God in prayer and recommit our lives to serving and loving others as we seek justice for all.

One: O God, who has created your children to be free, we attest in word and deed that you are our God and we are your people. From our earliest days as the people whom you intend to be free, you have called us forth from self-seeking bondage, comfort, complacency, and complaint, to freeing and redeeming action for justice everywhere in the world.

All: You are our freeing God, and we would be your free and freeing people.

One: O God of Exodus and the Burning Bush, of the Prophets and of Jesus, we hear your powerful calling to be your servants in the service of all those who are oppressed. At every turn we hear your voice in the cries of the poor, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the broken, for you made yourself one with those who seek justice, freedom, and peace. We share a vision, a promise, and a yearning for the day of your reign, O God.

All: You are our servant God, and we would be your serving people.

One: O God, our Sustainer, search our hearts and reveal to us all the ways we contribute to injustice and to self-destroying bondage. Give us deep courage to find the path of your way, ready to give our very selves as living sacrifices for your will. We have heard you calling us.

All: You are our God and we are your people. Help us to pursue relentlessly that living, breathing justice which transforms persons and peoples. To your will for justice we recommit ourselves and pledge ourselves, our funds, and our actions.

One: Let us now pray the prayer Jesus taught his disciples, saying...

An Affirmation of Faith
Based on the Writings of Dr. King

I refuse to believe that we are unable to influence the events which surround us.

I refuse to believe that we are so bound to racism and war, that peace, brotherhood and sisterhood are not possible.

I believe there is an urgent need for people to overcome oppression and violence, without resorting to violence and oppression.

I believe that we need to discover a way to live together in peace,
a way which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation.
The foundation of this way is love.

I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality.
I believe that right temporarily defeated is stronger than evil triumphant.

I believe that peoples everywhere can have three meals a day for their bodies,
education and culture for their minds,
and dignity, equality and freedom for their spirits.

I believe that what self-centered people have torn down,
other-centered people can build up.

By the goodness of God at work within people,
I believe that brokenness can be healed.
"And the lion and the lamb shall lie down together,
and everyone will sit under their own vine and fig tree,
and none shall be afraid."
